

FutureSmart

FutureSmart focuses on the important Middle School years by empowering students to become the stewards of their financial futures. This three hour web-based resource educates students on the practicalities of daily financial decisions and the payoffs of long-term planning. Since Middle School is an important period for positive habits to take form and grow, this course is particularly meaningful.

Through a compelling narrative in which students play the Mayor of a town, local citizens are helped with real-life decisions. From weighing opportunity costs, to delaying instant gratification for long-term gain, students face important questions on their way to becoming FutureSmart. At the end of the course, students compose their own blueprint for the future. FutureSmart can be integrated into unit plans and used during class time, as a capstone project, or in a flipped classroom.

Select Course Modules

Smart Shopping. The economics of everyday life are full of nuance and complexity. Behind every simple decision are the many factors that must be weighed, balanced and assessed to reach the optimal solution. In this activity, students learn about some of those factors, from supply and demand, to income and expenses. Most importantly, they learn all of this against the backdrop of their own shopping experience as they update interior decor of their childhood room.

Business and Career Readiness. There is no greater investment than the one you make in yourself. This is a lesson that should be learned early and often. For every student that feels the pressure to find a path after high school, this activity is a necessary release valve. In this activity, students learn about the many opportunities that exist beyond high school, from trade school to four year institutions.
